

WEATHER WILL BE BRIGHT.

FORECAST FOR TODAY IS "FAIR" OVERHEAD, BUT IT IS LIKELY TO BE SLOPPY UNDER FOOT.

For today the weather clerk announces that the weather will be fair. Yesterday snow flurries prevailed in the forenoon as scheduled by Forecaster Hyatt. The afternoon was clear with a falling mercury, the lowest temperature being 25 degrees, while the maximum was 34. Reports from Colorado and adjacent states indicated weather conditions similar to those prevailing here.

PRESS CLUB AT BANQUET.

NEWSPAPER MEN AND FRIENDS HOLD INFORMAL GATHERING AT COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Two hundred people were at the Press club banquet at the Commercial club Saturday night, and two hundred people went to the banquet in the way of enjoyment. It was the second annual event of the club.

Among the guests were a meeting of the Board of Education as it really ought to happen. The members who were present apparently appreciated the production.

A meeting of the Salt Lake Ministerial association was another feature of interest. Perhaps the meetings don't really take place as they were represented last night, but there isn't a vast amount of difference between the real production and the imitation.

The chief attraction was the Carbon county trial, where an imported Demolish was tried and sentenced for having an opinion in the town of Scofield, county of Carbon, State of Utah Fuel company. The National Guard, with Brig. Gen. John Q. Cannon, was present at the trial.

At the conclusion of the programme impromptu talks were made by Prof. Land of the Brigham Young academy, Robert Sloan, Fisher and others. The flowers were unusually handed to Prof. Land, who in the whole of the stories, caused uproarious applause.

For the collection of Navajo blankets and Indian ornaments for the new Federation hall, which took place in the new Federation hall, was entirely impromptu. The coming of the two officers had not been heralded and they took the local officers entirely by surprise, but the latter lost no time in getting busy. They arranged for the members of the new Federation hall, and the two officers passed the news by word of mouth and securing a crowd which taxed the capacity of the hall.

In addition to the address of the visitors the programme was enlivened with a musical programme and the hospitality of the hostess in the way of cigars and refreshments was unbounded.

The Bachelors' International League of America is affiliated with the Hotel and Restaurant Employees' International alliance and this branch of the organization was not overlooked in the address of Mr. Cannon.

The concern of one is the concern of all. The concern of all is the concern of one. The concern of one is the concern of all. The concern of all is the concern of one.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Heath entertained about a dozen friends informally at supper last night at their residence, East Brigham street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Giesz, 214 North State, will entertain at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Giesz Whitney. Covers will be laid for twelve.

Rev. Charles F. Perkins, wife and son departed last night for Boise, Idaho, to visit for a week among friends in that city. They expect to return next Saturday.

Meats lodge No. 22 will entertain its friends at a social next Monday evening, February 15.

The trial was held yesterday by the Sheriff. The removal of Bell there is only one occupant of "murderers' row" at the prison.

BIG MORMONS SILENT AS TO SECRET MEETING

Practically every bishop of the Mormon church in Salt Lake state responded to the urgent call of the stake presidency for a meeting at Barratt hall yesterday morning. The unexpected publicity given the proposed meeting through The Tribune caused a change in the details, and as the bishops returned the hall they were informed by a lookout that the conference would take place in room 25 in the Brigham Young memorial building. A reporter was not with the statement that the meeting was a private one.

It is customary on fast days for the bishops to assemble with others of the priesthood in the Temple, but last week a pressing invitation was sent out for them to come to Barratt hall at 10 o'clock. If sick they were to come in carriages; if out of the city they were to return before the appointed time, and they were to come alone, leaving their counselors behind them. The nature of the call accounts for the unusually large attendance yesterday. The only persons present, aside from the bishops, were the members of the stake presidency.

The meeting began at 10 o'clock, and when it adjourned at 11:30 those who participated said that only business matters, such as tithing and the keeping of accounts, had been discussed. When it was suggested that the conference might have been held in anticipation of the approaching Senatorial investigation, the gentlemen concerned in the matter were surprised that anybody should suspect the bishops of quorum of tampering with mandates, and especially political affairs on the Lord's day.

PLUM ALLEY AGONY; NEW YEAR'S IS COMING

They will roast a pig in Chinatown next week. And they will smoke the pipe and drink and smoke again. The miniature Canton, which lies in Plum alley, is all agog with subdued excitement, and an unusual commotion has roused the lethargic Chin. It is all because of the approaching new year, which begins promptly at midnight on Monday.

Great preparations are in progress for its celebration. Giant crackers and excellent food have been ordered and received. Rockets and all devices known to the Orient in the way of pyrotechnical displays have been procured and wait only for the midnight of the 15th, known from far Cathay will burn upon the altar of the great loss which smiles a graven smile upon his zealous worshippers.

The loss-house is being renovated and the loss itself is being furnished in anticipation of the great event. A fresh coat of paint of various colors has been daubed upon the features of the wooden god. Yellow and red and green commingle to add to the charms which the wooden god offers to his believers. Great wreaths of red and yellow flowers, and the trip in front and fill the dingy room where the Celestials worship.

All debts and obligations must be paid before the beginning of the festivities. He who violates that rule will not be permitted to take part in the celebration. He is ostracized from the community and his business career will be inconspicuously. No debts are carried past the beginning of the new year.

In the absence of Chin Q. Chan, who previously had charge of the ceremonies, Hop Luey will assume the responsibilities. The Home Trust and Savings Co. is cordial welcome to anyone who desires to visit their homes during the course of the proceedings. Five days and nights will be devoted to the festivities.

BARTENDERS' UNION HOLDS A BIG RALLY

The Bartenders' union is one of the youngest labor organizations in the city and also one of the most enthusiastic and vigorous. What it lacks in age it makes up in energy. Yesterday it had the pleasure of entertaining its international president, Robert A. Callahan of South Boston, Mass., and one of its national organizers, David J. Foley.

The rally took place in the new Federation hall, was entirely impromptu. The coming of the two officers had not been heralded and they took the local officers entirely by surprise, but the latter lost no time in getting busy. They arranged for the members of the new Federation hall, and the two officers passed the news by word of mouth and securing a crowd which taxed the capacity of the hall.
